Vista Host Announces Consecutive Wall of Fame Inductees for Hampton Inn Altoona and Hampton Inn Dyersburg
Two Vista Host Hotels are Tops in Hampton Chain

HOUSTON, TX — December 21, 2004 — Vista Host, a Houston-based management company for upscale limited feature hotel properties, announced today that Hilton has recognized two Vista Host Hampton Inns for excellence by naming them for consecutive Wall of Fame appearances.

General Managers Tina Christian in Dyersburg, Tennessee and Jeff Cipriani in Altoona, Pennsylvania have earned their place in Hampton brand excellence for consecutive quarters. The Wall of Fame is for Hampton Inns that score in the top 15% of the brand in Quality Assurance Inspections, Overall Guest Satisfaction for Service and Accommodations.

“As a top quality leading management company in the Hampton brand, having two hotels acknowledged on the Wall of Fame is both an honor for Vista Host and a testament to the quality job that our managers do for our hotels,” said Rick Krueger, Senior Vice President of Operations.

Founded in 1977 by Michael Harrell, Vista Host is a nationally recognized management company committed to achieving superior results in operating hotels from their ability to blend the science of hotel management with the art of hospitality.
