Harrison is a long term resident of Columbus. She has been in the sales field for over 20 years. Her passion is people and relationship building. Harrison commented on why she got into the industry “Initially, I was attracted to hotel sales because I like to travel and wanted to be a part of the industry. Now I am excited to return to the industry and play an important role in the opening of a hotel and to create a friendly, authentic, caring & thoughtful team. It is also exciting to be a part of a new destination that will put South Columbus on the map in the corporate and adult leisure markets.”

Mike Gulotty, Vice President of Operations, comments “The Hampton Inn & Suites Scioto Downs is part of what many will discover is a comprehensive destination. Ms. Harrison immediately recognized what an incredible experience she is bringing to the market. The hotel, Racino, Conference/banquet facility, and Brew Brothers (restaurant, brewery, sports bar) teams are actively developing their working relationship to deliver Columbus’s premier entertainment and hospitality meeting destination. This is one of the most exciting projects I have been involved with in years. I wish I could be a guest!”
