Vista Host Announces Consecutive Wall of Fame Inductee for Hampton Inn Dyersburg

Vista Host Hotel is Tops in Hampton Chain

HOUSTON, TX — February 10, 2006 — Vista Host, a Houston-based management company for upscale limited feature hotel properties, announced today that Hilton has recognized its Hampton Inn in Dyersburg, Tennessee for excellence by naming the hotel for consecutive Wall of Fame honors.

General Manager Tina Christian in Dyersburg earned her place among the best hotels in the Hampton brand for excellence for every quarter in 2005. The Wall of Fame is for Hampton Inns that score in the top 15% of the brand in Quality Assurance Inspections, and Guest Satisfaction scores for Service and Accommodations.

“As a top quality leading management company in the Hampton brand, having a hotel acknowledged on the Wall of Fame is both an honor for Vista Host and a testament to the quality job that Tina Christian and her staff do in Dyersburg,” said Rick Krueger, Senior Vice President of Operations.

Extending back to the second quarter of 2004, the Hampton Inn Dyersburg has made the exclusive list for 7 consecutive quarters.

Founded in 1977 by Michael Harrell, Vista Host is a nationally recognized management company committed to achieving superior results in operating hotels from their ability to blend the science of hotel management with the art of hospitality.
