VISTA HOST ANNOUNCES LAUNCH OF NEW WEBSITE

HOUSTON, TX — March 6, 2006 — Vista Host, a Houston based hotel management company announced today that its has rolled out a new look and feel to their company's website. The website was designed and launched with their strategic e-commerce business partner, the L.E.T. Group of Jupiter, FL.

The new Vista Host website has been launched and is available on the Internet at www.vistahost.com. It contains general information about the company as well as the stated mission and vision statements for Vista Host. A current property portfolio is available, with links to their respective websites, as is a detailed bio on the company's officers and management team. In addition to the pages mentioned, there is a unique industry vendor partner page that lists many of the providers Vista Host uses on a national basis for various products and services.

Rick Krueger, Sr. Vice President Operations, Vista Host, commented, "We decided to update our website with a more aesthetically pleasing look and feel. In today's business environment it's important to have a web presence to promote and foster relationships with business partners, associates, and owners groups. Our new website offers one way to do this and has a current look and feel to it." Mr. Krueger went on to say, "We wanted our website to reflect who we are and what we believe in. This new format allows us to continue our promotion of goodwill throughout our company and with our business partners. From recruiting to promoting the company, our hotels, and having our associates and partners share information, this is a great tool."

Kent Tewell, President of the L.E.T. Group offered, "Vista Host has been a long-term client of ours that has always embraced technology and used the Internet early on to market and promote their hotels and management company. This new website takes it to another level for them."
